(4) Such superior Revenue Authority may confirm a table submitted under sub-section (3), with or without modification, or may return it for revision.

(5) When a table of rent-rates has been confirmed by such superior Revenue Authority, the order confirming it shall be conclusive evidence that the proceedings for the preparation of the table have been duly conducted in accordance with this Act, and it may be presumed that the rates shown in the table for each class of land are fair and equitable rates payable for land of that class within the area to which the table applies.

Rate shown in the table to be the maximum rate

102. The rate of rent for any class of land shown in a table of rent-rates confirmed under section 101 shall be the maximum rate at which the rent of a raiyat or non-agricultural tenant for such class of land can be settled.

105. (1) The rent payable by a raiyat or non-agricultural tenant in respect of any land shall be liable to enhancement on the ground that the rent payable by him is substantially lower than the rent calculated at the rates of rent determined under this Chapter for similar classes of land in the unit in which the land is situated and entered in the table of rent rates, confirmed under section 101, applicable to such unit.

(2) In all cases where the increase of rent exceeds fifty per centum of the rent payable during the immediately preceding year, the Revenue-officer shall, and in any other cases where he considers that an immediate increase of rent will cause hardship, he may direct that the enhancement shall take effect by yearly increments over a number of years as he may fix in this behalf:

Provided that the increase of rent in a particular year shall not exceed fifty per centum of the rent payable during the year immediately preceding the year from which the new assessment takes effect under section 113.

Grounds for reduction of rent

106. The rent payable by a raiyat in respect of a holding may be reduced on one or more of the following grounds, namely:-

(b) that the soil of the holding has deteriorated as a result of the deposit of sand or through the operation of other natural causes, sudden or gradual; and

Grounds for reduction of rent

⁶⁰[106A. The rent payable by a non-agricultural tenant in respect of any tenancy may be reduced on the ground that the rent payable by him is substantially higher than the rent calculated at the rates of rent determined under this Chapter for similar classes of land in the unit in which the land comprised in the tenancy is situated and entered in the table of rent-rates, confirmed under section 101, application to such unit.]

(2) For the purpose of settling such fair and equitable rents and preparing the settlement rent-roll, the Revenue-officer shall be guided by the rent-rates entered in the table of rent-rates so prepared and confirmed:

Provided that a Revenue-officer shall not be bound to apply the said rates to any particular case or area if he considers, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that the application of such rates to such case or area would be unfair or inequitable.

(3) Where any non-agricultural land is comprised in a tenancy which includes land other than non-agricultural land, or when the classification of land has partly changed from agricultural to non-agricultural, the Revenue-officer shall,-

(2) The Revenue-officer may, of his own motion or on application of any party aggrieved, at any time before a settlement rent-roll is submitted to the confirming authority under section 109, revise any rent entered therein:

Provided that no such entries shall be revised until reasonable notice has been given to the tenant concerned to appear and be heard in the matter.

Sanctioning final public of the settlement rent-roll and in corporation of the same in the record-of-rights

109. (1) When all objections have been disposed of under section 108, the Revenue-officer shall submit the settlement rent-roll to the prescribed confirming authority with a full statement of the grounds for his proposals and a summary of the objections (if any) which he has received.

(2) The confirming authority may sanction the settlement rent-roll with or without amendment or may return it for revision:

Provided that no entry shall be amended or omission supplied until reasonable notice has been given to the tenant concerned to appear and be heard in the matter.

(3) After sanction by the confirming authority the Revenue-office shall finally frame the settlement rent-roll and publish it in such manner as may be prescribed and shall incorporate it in the record-of-rights for the area, to which such settlement rent-roll relates, maintained under this Part; and such publication shall be conclusive evidence that the settlement rent-roll has been duly made under this Chapter.

Appeal to and revision by superior Revenue Authority
